Statement of Arab human rights organizations:

Calls for an immediate halt to the Saudi - American aggression on Yemen

54 Human Rights Networks and organizations in the Arab world undersigned call for of the need to stop the Saudi –American military aggression, with the participation of some Arab countries and covered by the US and internationally, on Yemen and immediately lift the unjust blockade on his people.

The organizations condemn such Saudi arrogance in continuing disrespect of international humanitarian law and ignoring international conventions and principles. They also deplore the continuation of the Arab and international silence towards these crimes, which amount to crimes against humanity, as the continued aggression and siege on Yemen for 165 days contributed to increase the suffering of civilians, especially women and children, and the scarcity of food and medication and the lack of petroleum products and electricity, as it led to the deaths of more than five thousands civilians and the wounding of more than twenty thousand citizens, not to mention that more than 21 million Yemeni need food and drugs, according to reports of international organizations.

Our organizations consider that the continuation of the aggression, the targeting of civilians in many areas and cities, pricing of internal war and supplying it with weapons and money, not to mention the media incitement of Yemeni people against each other, which has led to the continuation of assassinations and suicide operations targeting mosques and civilians. The Saudi aggression, double standards, denial of Yemeni rights and the right of people to choose the path of social, economic, and political development without any interference or dictation, is considered by our organizations as a departure from the United Nations Charter and humanitarian principles and time has come to stop it.

Therefore, the organizations signing this statement call on the United Nations , the Security Council, and the international community, with all its organs and institutions, as well as all Arab countries to urgently move to put an end to this aggression and its crimes and the disrespect of the right of the Yemeni people in freedom and sovereignty, and to compel Saudi Arabia to abide by the principles of international legitimacy and end the blockade, and thus:

1. Immediately cease aggression on Yemen.
2. Stop the unjust siege on the people of Yemen and the delivery of medicine, food, and petroleum products as soon as possible.
3. Reactivate Yemeni dialogue between the various parties and political and social actors to resolve internal differences and work on forming a national unity government with the invocation of all parties to the constitution, the law, and the outcomes of the approved national comprehensive dialogue, and respect for human rights and
